

Did JFK seal his fate in '61 speech?

It is unfortunate that so many people today speak of conspiracy as if the word meant false.

Conspiracy is generally defined as a secret planning or acting for an unlawful or harmful purpose.

But the Illuminati have done such a fine brainwashing job that the masses—whenever they encounter history or information they've not known about—are conditioned to chirp like Pavlovian parrots: "Conspiracy theory!"

Yet there is abundant documentation provided by true patriotic Americans that warned of the behind-the-scenes actions by traitors in our midst, namely, the Robber Baron families that set up tax-exempt foundations to slowly morph the United States into a socialist country, one which eventually will join all others in a malignant New World Order.

As part of their traitorous strategy, these foundations have successfully influenced and, most often, took control of information outlets to include publishing houses—especially those charged with the writing of text books—newspapers and broadcast stations.

Therefore, it is understandable why books written by patriotic Americans who have exposed the conspiracy have been suppressed.

Thankfully, these precious books and the insider testimonies they provide still exist, but they will never be read by most of us.

Instead, the masses are continually propagandized by network swill and biased books that are passed off as the "information we can trust."

So could it be that conspiracy talk is just a lot of hooey?

Then what would you make of President John F. Kennedy's words all those years ago?

Why would he warn us of a "monolithic and ruthless conspiracy" that threatened not only this nation but all free republics?

JFK issued this warning in a speech he gave before the National News Publishers Association at New York's Waldorf-Astoria Hotel April 27, 1961.

And understand this:

Presidents do not get assassinated by Lone Gunmen.

Lone Gunmen are always used as false fronts for conspiracies to murder heads of state around the world going back to Lincoln's assassination and—I'd hate to tell you—even before that.

Heads of state are not assassinated by unhinged nuts. Heads of state are eliminated as the result of precision planning with secondary and tertiary fail safes if the main plan goes awry.

But the whored-out news outlets bring you the story they want you to believe no matter how implausible it appears when subjected to even the least degree of substantive analysis.

When you read the following excerpt from JFK's speech, ask yourself to what or whom is he referring?

It can't be Communism because, at this time, in the depths of the Cold War, there's no reason not to take the opportunity to whack the U.S.S.R. or Cuba or China.

If not Communism, then, what's JFK pointing to?

Could it be he's touching upon the interlocking secret societies—which fall under the overarching term Illuminati—about which this newspaper has allowed me to devote so many column inches?

Remember, this was your President speaking nearly a half-century ago:

“For we are opposed around the world by a monolithic and ruthless conspiracy that relies primarily on covert means for expanding its sphere of influence, on infiltration instead of invasion; on subversion instead of elections; on intimidation instead of free choice; on guerillas at night instead of armies by day.

“It is a system which has conscripted vast human and material resources into the building of a tightly knit, highly efficient machine that combines military, diplomatic, intelligence, economic, scientific and political operations.

“Its preparations are concealed, not published. Its mistakes are buried, not headlined. Its dissenters are silenced, not praised.

“No expenditure is questioned. No rumor is printed. No secret is revealed. It conducts the cold war, in short, with a wartime discipline no democracy would ever hope or wishes to match.

“Nevertheless, every democracy recognizes the necessary restraints of national security—and the question remains whether those restraints need to be more strictly observed if we are to oppose this kind of attack as well as outright invasion.”

So is JFK a conspiracy nut?

Funny, because conspiracy nuts don't get executed. Conspiracy nuts are allowed to talk because the minute they open their mouths they discredit themselves.

And could it be a conspiracy, too, that Lee Harvey Oswald—the Lone Gunmen—was murdered by Jack Ruby to shut up Oswald, who realized he had been set up and would eventually start to chirp and name names.

This was the Jack Ruby—who was well-acquainted with Oswald and an infamous mob asset—who quickly died of cancer in jail, but not before he gave an interview to Dorothy Kilgallen, a high-profile celebrity and columnist for the New York Journal-American, who, before she could get Ruby's story out, just happened to die from an overdose of alcohol and seconal.

Ah, but, heck, it's just a conspiracy theory, isn't it?

Well, isn't it?
